

Combining groups for addition

- Adult or child can choose numbers to write in the green squares.
- Then child to count that number of items (e.g. buttons) for each large brown box.
- Finally, the child can count all the items and write the answer in the golden box.

(buttons are shown as an example – be sure to use risk assessed age-appropriate loose parts as you see fit)

Addition

