

Breathing

- You breathe air in through your mouth and nose.
- The air goes down your windpipe into your lungs.
- Your lungs pass the good parts of the air into your blood.
- Your lungs then push the air you don't need up your windpipe and out through mouth and nose.

