

The Little Red Hen

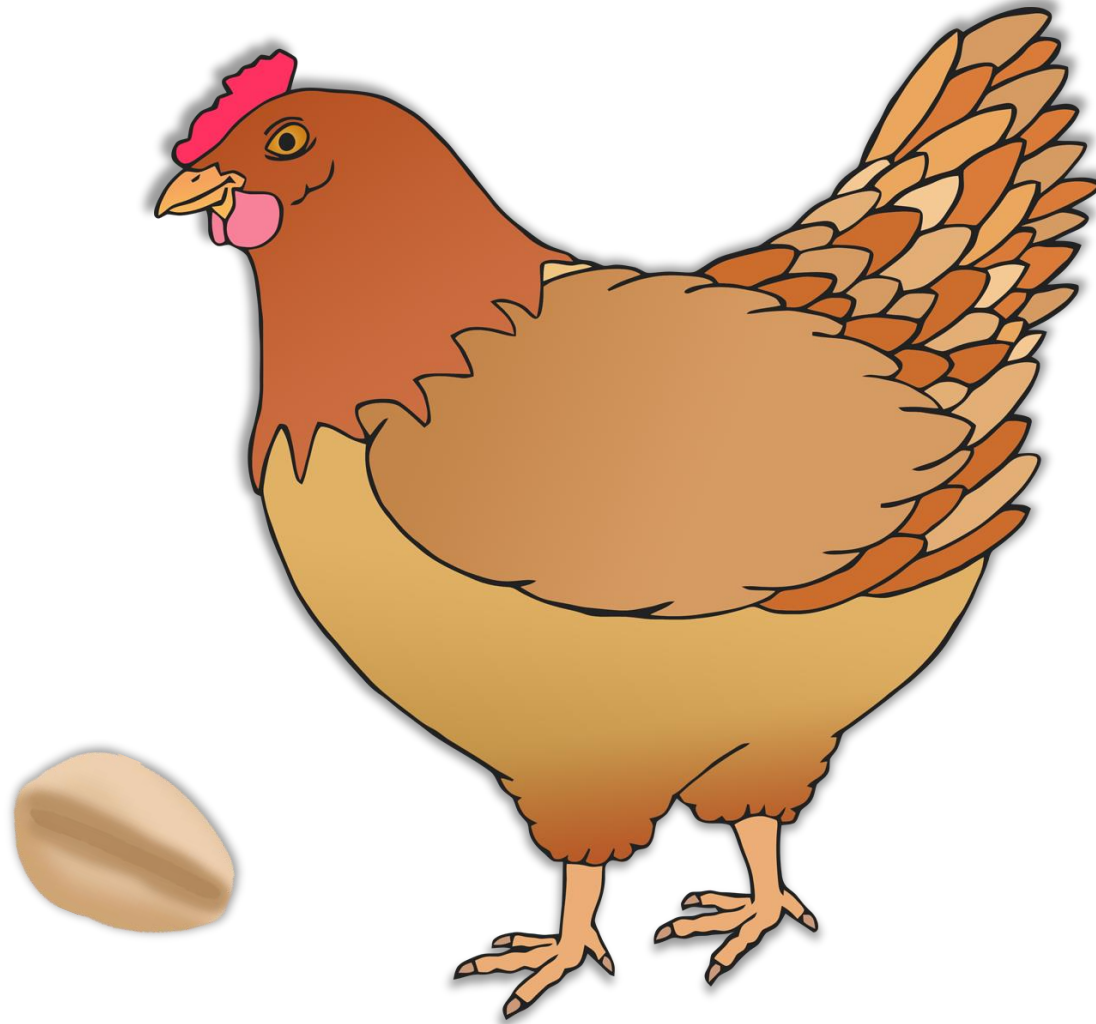

Story Sequence Cards

This pack includes story cards for children to sequence with or without an adult.

As there are repeated sections/refrains in this story, it may be useful to print some cards more than once depending on your activity, e.g. the 'Not I' cards.

There are also two versions of the 'Not I' cards. One set has more descriptive language, and one more basic.

The little red hen found a grain of wheat.
“Who will help me plant this grain of wheat?”
she asked.

“The wheat is ready now” announced the little red hen “Who will help me gather it?”

“I have collected the wheat,” said the little red hen, “who will help me grind it into flour at the mill?”

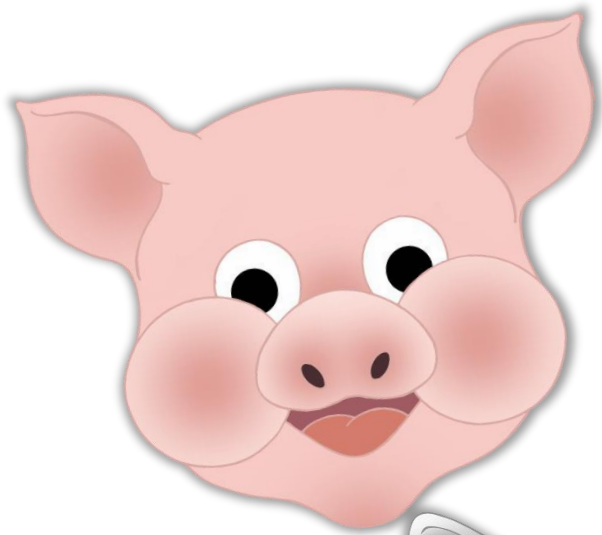

“I have the flour,” said the little red hen,
“who will help me mix it into dough and
make the bread?”
