

Love poem

Poetry writing frame to encourage enjoyment in the rhythm of poetry.

- Child to think of people in their life that they love.
- Child (or scribing adult) to write the names of important people in their lives in the red boxes.
- There is no need for any words to rhyme.

N.B. In a large group each red box could be filled in by a different child.

Assist the child/ren in performing their poem and enjoying the beauty and rhythm of the language!

Love, love, who do I love?

...that's who I love.

...that's who I love.

...that's who I love.

Love...

Love...

LOVE!
