

Present Shape Match – Large

These large format cards can be used a variety of ways to help children look at similarities of shape.

For example:

- For a group of children, one ‘wrapped’ card could be given out to each child and then an unwrapped picture shown. The children would then call out if they think they have the corresponding card.
- For an individual, the cards could all be laid out on the floor to be matched together.

